

2024-2025 UNIFORM POLICY

TOPS:

- School-approved short-sleeved polo (or long-sleeved polo) with the school crest. Polos must be in navy blue or light gray for middle school and royal blue and dark gray for high school.
- School-approved club t-shirt on Tuesdays (FREE).

PANTS:

- Khakis or Navy blue pants
- Jeans are allowed on t-shirt Tuesdays (FREE) if the student is wearing a school polo or club t-shirt. Jeans must have NO rips or holes and be BLUE denim.
- School-issued sweatpants sold by PTSA ONLY on t-shirt Tuesdays (FREE). Any other sweatpants will NOT be allowed on Tuesdays.

OUTER WEAR:

- School-approved hoodies & jackets with school crest/logo. These are sold by PTSA and Student Activities. Hoodies must be in navy blue, royal blue, gray, or black.
- Any hoodie or jacket NOT sold by the school may ONLY be PLAIN and in the following colors: navy blue, royal blue, gray or black. A small logo is allowed, but NO large prints or patterns throughout the hoodie or jacket will be allowed.
- College hoodies, sweaters or jackets are allowed any day of the week. This is the only exception to the color and pattern rule.

SHOES:

- Closed-toe shoes or sneakers. NO sandals, NO Crocs, NO flip flops, or open-toes shoes are allowed.

DRESS DOWN FRIDAYS:

- On most Fridays, students will be allowed to dress-down for a fee of $2.00. Wristbands are sold in the front of the school on Friday mornings. What is allowed as part of the paid dress down?
- Jeans (any color with no rips), sweatpants or uniform pants
- School appropriate top/t-shirt (no rips, no spaghetti straps, no bellies exposed)
- Crocs in sport mode and must have the JMMAST jibbitz purchased from the PTSA. Crocs cannot be worn during PE or during science lab classes where chemicals are involved.

ADDITIONAL NOTES: No dresses or skirts allowed, unless it's part of a designated dress down day, like Spirit Week or Halloween. We understand there may be special circumstances. Any deviation from the uniform policy for personal, financial, or religious reasons MUST be discussed with and cleared by an Administrator. There will be clear, consistent, and progressive consequences for not abiding by the school's uniform policy for the 2024-2025 school year. Please address any questions to mjerez@dadeschools.net.
